

NHRID INTERPRETER RETREAT

NOVEMBER 3RD-5TH, 2017

All NH working interpreters and students are welcome to attend!

This will be an exploratory weekend with a variety of leisurely activities and exercises!

Facilitated by Kelly Decker, Certified Interpreter, Vermont
A leader at all levels in the interpreting field who has experience coordinating and implementing countless community events and projects with a primary focus on social justice and Deaf-parented interpreters. An Integrated Model of Interpreting (IMI) practitioner, who is dedicated to the professional dialogue at the Etna Project.

Friday, November 3rd- 5-9pm : Optional gathering for food prep, cooking and connections!

Saturday, November 4th- 9am-6pm : Facilitated discussions; 6:30pm-9pm : Dinner with the Deaf community!

Sunday, November 5th- 9am-12pm : Discussions continued and wrap-up.

Come join us for a weekend full of learning, analyzing, understanding, discussion and most of all, FUN!

Register online by October 6, 2017

www.nhrid.org

payment due at time of registration

ADA accomodation requests must be sent to pdc.nhrid@yahoo.com before October 6, 2017

Some food will be provided! Bring a dish to share!

30 beds for overnight accommodations available on first come first serve basis! Hurry to claim your bed now!

Only $100 to register!!

paypal fee may apply

1.1 CEUs in the Professional Studies Category will be given to participants

WALNUT HILL RETREAT CENTER
81 Chester Rd,
Raymond, NH,
03077